

Faculté de droit

Université
de Montréal

North American Law in a Global Context

SUMMER SCHOOL JULY 23 TO AUGUST 14, 2017

Every year, Université de Montréal's Faculty of Law hosts a three-week Summer School. During this period, students follow courses such as:

- The Canadian Legal System
- Constitutional Law
- Introduction to U.S. Law
- Criminal Law
- Canadian Business Law
- International Commercial Arbitration
- Introduction to Sustainable Development Law: A North American Perspective

Organized trips to Quebec City, Toronto/Niagara Falls and Ottawa also form part of the program.

Registration costs amount to CAD$ 2,800 (subject to change). This includes tuition, lodging, breakfasts and lunches, as well as travelling costs related to the trips organized by the Faculty.

For further information, visit:
droit.umontreal.ca
BLGC-droit.umontreal.ca